In explanation of the situation, President Farrell made to-night the following signed statement:

Statement by Farrell,

"In response to a telegram from me calling him to New York, George T."

Stallings appeared in my offices this morning to give his version of the smanager. To my surprise, Mr. American League Club, of which he is manager. To my surprise, Mr. Stallings' made grave accusations against Hal Chase, first baseman of the team and its captain. Mr. Stallings and that he has been guilty, in base, ball payer can afford to have his reputation and the reputation of his club smirched by such charges, and I have decided to go at once to Cleveland, where the team now is playing, to make a thorough investing attempts of the matter before the National Commission, and ask that Chase has been fillings's charges there is no place on the neutron matter before the National Commission, and ask that Chase be punished. I owe such investigation to the public and the players.

"Rough and Ready Guards" Complete Record of Third Regiment.

Reard of Third Regiment.

Completing the muster rolls of the Third Virginia Infantry. Colonel J. V. Bidgood, Secretary of Virginia Military Records, is in receipt of the rolls for the "Rough and Ready Guards," of Southampton county, which was Company G. This record was prepared by J. S. Gilliam, of Adams Grove, who was a lieutenant in this company during the War Between the States.

Colonel Bidgood now has the rolls complete, in numerical order, with but very few exceptions, of all Virginia regiments up to the Twenty-seventh. He is now recording the Twenty-ninth in the roll books. He hopes to secure the few missing companies.

CHALMERS No. 5.

Driven by Bill Bolger, wins GLIDDEN TROPHY.

This was the last car to lose its perfect score in the 1910 Glidden Tour. For five terrific days the $1500 Chalmers had no penalty, while $2500 to $3500 cars suffered. And in the final examination in Chicago, after a grind of 2851 miles, the Chalers "30" was not found at fault in any of its vital parts.

The Chalmers "30" came through the severest test to which stock cars were ever submitted with an unequaled record.

Miss Walsh to Come Later.

Notice was received by telegraph yesterday that Miss Blanche Walsh, who was booked to appear at the Academy to-night in "The Other Wo-Academy to-night in "The Other Wo-man," would not be able to appear, but that she wuld play here later in the season. The season was scheduled to open in Trenton, N. J last night, but-it is understood that the company could not get things in shape so early.

"The Sins of the Father,"

Manager George H. Brennan has provided a strong company of players for Thomas Dixon's new drama, "The Sins of the Father," which will be presented here as the Academy on Saturday, matinee and night.

Among the principals are Mrs. Charles G. Craig and Arthur J. Pickens, Warren Conlan, the former Shakesperean star; Ethel Wright and Robert, Barton, both of whom were in big New York productions, in which they enacted leading roles, and Lydia Knott.
